The Force Support Squadron also manages the Honor Guard program. These top notch professionals perform respectful ceremonies for our fallen comrades in arms. From funerals to posting of the colors to retirement ceremonies, the Honor Guard always provides a professional, memorable, and respectful showing. The Honor Guard supports 64,000 square miles in 34 counties throughout New Mexico and Texas. This elite group is always looking for members to train with and join them.

Honor Guard Mission Statement:

To represent the Air Force and Cannon AFB Senior leadership by providing top-notch military support to the local community and surrounding areas in ceremonial functions with honor and dignity.
